

FISH CONSUMPTION ADVISORY, BY LOCATION

May 6, 2026

Location, species, advisor

Location: Alamo, La Paz/Mohave Counties

Pollutant: Mercury

Fish Species: Largemouth bass and Black crappie:

Advisory: ADEQ recommends that the public not consume these species.

Fish Species: Channel catfish

Advisory: ADEQ recommends that adults limit consumption of the above fish to 2.5 ounces (uncooked weight) per week and children 12 years of age and younger limit consumption to two ounces per month (uncooked weight).

Location: Apache, Maricopa County

Pollutant: Mercury

Fish Species: Largemouth bass

Advisory: ADEQ recommends that adults limit consumption of the above fish to 2.5 ounces (uncooked weight) per week and children 12 years of age and younger limit consumption to two ounces per month (uncooked weight).

Location: Arivaca, Pima County

Pollutant: Mercury

Fish Species: Largemouth bass

Advisory: ADEQ recommends that the public not consume this species.

Location: Bartlett, Maricopa County

Pollutant: Mercury Fish

Species: Largemouth bass, Channel catfish, Flathead catfish

Advisory: ADEQ recommends that adults limit consumption of the above fish to 2.5 ounces (uncooked weight) per week and children 12 years of age and younger limit consumption to two ounces per month (uncooked weight).

Location: Becker, Apache County

Pollutant: Mercury Fish Species: Largemouth bass

Advisory: ADEQ recommends that adults limit consumption of the above fish to 2.5 ounces (uncooked weight) per week and children 12 years of age and younger limit consumption to two ounces per month (uncooked weight).

Location: Black Canyon, Navajo County

Pollutant: Mercury

Fish Species: Largemouth bass

Advisory: ADEQ recommends that adults limit consumption of the above fish to 2.5 ounces (uncooked weight) per week and children 12 years of age and younger limit consumption to two ounces per month (uncooked weight).

Location: Canyon, Maricopa County

Pollutant: Mercury

Fish Species: Yellow bass

Advisory: ADEQ recommends that adults limit consumption of the above fish to 2.5 ounces (uncooked weight) per week and children 12 years of age and younger limit consumption to two ounces per month (uncooked weight).

Fish Species: Largemouth bass

Advisory: ADEQ recommends that the public not consume this species.

Location: Horsethief Basin Lake, Yavapai County

Pollutant: Mercury

Fish Species: Largemouth bass

Advisory: ADEQ recommends that adults limit consumption of the above fish to 2.5 ounces (uncooked weight) per week and children 12 years of age and younger limit consumption to 2 ounces per month (uncooked weight).

Location: Lake Mary Upper and Lower, Coconino County

Pollutant: Mercury

Fish Species: Northern pike

Advisory: ADEQ recommends that adults limit consumption of the above fish to 2.5 ounces (uncooked weight) per week and children 12 years of age and younger limit consumption to two ounces per month (uncooked weight).

Fish Species: Walleye

Advisory: ADEQ recommends that the public not consume this species

Location: Lake Pleasant, Maricopa County

Pollutant: Mercury

Fish Species: Largemouth bass and Striped bass

Advisory: ADEQ recommends that adults limit consumption of the above fish to 2.5 ounces (uncooked weight) per week and children 12 years of age and younger limit consumption to two ounces per month (uncooked weight).

Location: Lake Powell, Coconino County (Arizona) Kane and San Juan Counties (Utah) from Dangling Rope Marina south to the Glen Canyon Dam.

Pollutant: Mercury

Fish Species: Striped bass

Advisory: The State of Utah recommends that pregnant women and children under six should limit their consumption of Striped bass to one 4- ounce meal per month. Women of childbearing age and children between the ages of six and sixteen should limit their consumption of Striped bass to three 8-ounce meals per month. Adult women past childbearing age and men older than 16 should limit their consumption of Striped bass to nine 8-ounce meals per month

Location: Long Lake, Coconino County

Pollutant: Mercury

Fish Species: Walleye

Advisory: ADEQ recommends that adults limit consumption of the above fish to 2.5 ounces (uncooked weight) per week and children 12 years of age and younger limit consumption to two ounces per month (uncooked weight).

Location: Lyman Lake, Apache County

Pollutant: Mercury

Fish Species: Walleye

Advisory: ADEQ recommends that the public not consume this species.

Location: Lyman, Apache County

Pollutant: Mercury

Fish Species: Channel catfish

Advisory: ADEQ recommends that adults limit consumption of the above fish to 2.5 ounces (uncooked weight) per week and children 12 years of age and younger limit consumption to two ounces per month (uncooked weight).

Location: Parker Canyon, Cochise County

Pollutant: Mercury

Fish Species: Largemouth bass

Advisory: ADEQ recommends that the public not consume this species

Fish Species: Bluegill

Advisory: ADEQ recommends that adults limit consumption of the above fish to 2.5 ounces (uncooked weight) per week and children 12 years of age and younger limit consumption to two ounces per month (uncooked weight).

Location: Patagonia, Santa Cruz County

Pollutant: Mercury

Fish Species: Flathead catfish

Advisory: ADEQ recommends that adults limit consumption of the above fish to 2.5 ounces (uncooked weight) per week and children 12 years of age and younger limit consumption to two ounces per month (uncooked weight)

Fish species: Largemouth bass

Advisory: ADEQ recommends that adults limit consumption of the above fish to 2.5 ounces (uncooked weight) per week and children 12 years of age and younger limit consumption to two ounces per month (uncooked weight).

Location: Peña Blanca, Santa Cruz County

Pollutant: Mercury

Fish Species: Largemouth bass

Advisory: ADEQ recommends that the public not consume this species

Location: Roosevelt, Gila County

Pollutant: Mercury

Fish Species: Channel catfish

Advisory: ADEQ recommends that adults limit consumption of the above fish to 2.5 ounces (uncooked weight) per week and children 12 years of age and younger limit consumption to two ounces per month (uncooked weight).

Fish species: Largemouth bass

Advisory: ADEQ recommends that the public not consume this species.

Location: Santa Fe Lake, Coconino County

Pollutant: Mercury

Fish Species: Black crappie

Advisory: ADEQ recommends that adults limit consumption of the above fish to 2.5 ounces (uncooked weight) per week and children 12 years of age and younger limit consumption to 2 ounces per month (uncooked weight).

Location: Scotts Reservoir, Navajo County

Pollutant: Mercury

Fish Species: Largemouth bass

Advisory: ADEQ recommends that adults limit consumption of the above fish to 2.5 ounces (uncooked weight) per week and children 12 years of age and younger limit consumption to two ounces per month (uncooked weight).

Location: Soldier and Soldier Annex Coconino County

Pollutant: Mercury

Fish Species: Walleye

Advisory: ADEQ recommends that the public not consume this species

Location: Tonto Creek, Gila County between Hellsgate Wilderness (located one mile downstream of Bear Flat Campground) and its confluence with Roosevelt Lake.

Pollutant: Mercury

Fish Species: Smallmouth bass

Advisory: ADEQ recommends that the public not consume this species

Fish Species: Carp

Advisory: ADEQ recommends that adults limit consumption of the above fish to 2.5 ounces (uncooked weight) per week and children 12 years of age and younger limit consumption to two ounces per month (uncooked weight).

Location: Willow Springs, Coconino County

Pollutant: Mercury

Fish Species: Largemouth bass and smallmouth bass

Advisory: ADEQ recommends that adults limit consumption of largemouth bass to 2.5 ounces (uncooked weight) per week and children 12 years of age and younger limit consumption to two ounces per month (uncooked weight).